Shayam Singh s/o Shri Mangat Ram, Village Manakpur Thakurdas, P.O. Pinjor, Tehsil Kalka, District Punchkula, Haryana .. Petitioner.

Versus

M/s Pamwi Tissues Ltd., Barotiwala, District Solan, H.P. .. Respondent.

Reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

For Petitioner : Shri Sarwan Dogra, Advocate.

For Respondent : Shri R. L. Sood, Senior Advocate with Shri Rajeev Sirkek, Advocate.

AWARD

The present award arises out of the following reference received for adjudication from the appropriate Government :—

"Whether the services of workman Sh. Shayam Singh have been reinstated by M/s Pamwi Tissues Ltd. [Birotiwala, District Solan, H.P. in compliance to the Order of Labour Court, dated 07-12-1996 (Copy of award enclosed) ? If not, its effects with relation to his wages and consequential service benefits and other advantageous payments from the period w.e.f. 08-12-1996 onwards to date which is to be adjudicated by the Labour Court."

2. It shall be appropriate to extract operative part of award dated 7-12-1996, which is as under:—

"The result, therefore, is that the entire enquiry proceedings held against the petitioners right from the framing of the charge-sheet Ex. PA is liable to be set aside and quashed which I accordingly order. The respondent company is commanded to reinstate the petitioners forthwith on the presentation of the copy of the order by them before it with all back wages and consequential benefits and other advantageous payments which may have accrued to them till today. The payment of the arrears of back wages and such like financial benefits shall be made to the petitioners by the respondent company within 40 days failing which it shall further be burdened with interest @ 12% per annum from today i.e. 7-12-1996 and also this order shall be put into execution in accordance with law."

3. This case has a chequered history. It arises out of a long drawn litigation between the parties. It has already undergone many rounds in the courts starting with this Court and upto the Hon'ble High Court of Himachal Pradesh and the Hon'ble Apex Court of the country.

4. It shall be in the fitness of things first to notice the admitted facts arising out of the pleadings on behalf of the parties. As per award dated 7-12-1996, Ex. P-1, the petitioner, Shayam Singh had joined the employment of the respondent as Pipe Fitter w.e.f. 1-3-1983. He alongwith two other workmen was dismissed from service on 16-12-1992 pursuant to a domestic enquiry. The dispute gave rise to Ref. No. 157 of 1993 which was decided by this Court by a common award dated 7-12-1996 in the above terms. The award was published in the H.P. Rajpatra on 5-4-1997 vide notification Ex. P-2. Being aggrieved by and dissatisfied, the respondent carried the matter to the Hon'ble H.P. High Court by way of CWP No. 52 of 1997 which was decided on 26-3-1997 vide copy of common judgement Ex. P-27 whereby award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 was upheld except regarding the direction qua payment of interest which was varied. Paras 7 to 10 of the judgment being relevant are reproduced here in below:—

"In such circumstances, the Labour Court was justified in setting aside the findings arrived at by the Inquiry Officer and also holding that the entire inquiry was vitiated. Consequently, the award does not suffer from any defect as contended by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

The third contention urged by the learned counsel for the petitioners is that there was no justification for the Labour Court to direct re-instatement with all back wages, consequential benefits and other advantageous payments to the workers. According to the learned counsel, the Labour Court ought to have applied its mind and considered whether the payment of back wages and other consequential benefits should be directed in the present case. There is no merit in this contention. If the Labour Court had come to the conclusion that the punishment awarded to the workers was disproportionate to the misconduct proved in the inquiry then the question of considering the award of back wages would have arisen. Once the Labour Court comes to the conclusion that the entire inquiry is vitiated and the order of dismissal is wholly un-sustainable, then the workers are entitled to back wages and other consequential benefits as well as other advantageous payments. We do not find any error in the direction given by the Labour Court in this regard.

The last contention urged by the learned counsel for the petitioners is that the direction to the petitioners to pay interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date of award is un-sustainable. As we have pointed out already, that the award become enforceable from the date of its publication. In the circumstances we set aside that part of the award and substitute the following direction in its place. The petitioners are liable to pay interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date of dismissal of the workers, if it fails to pay the entire amount due to the workers as per the award within thirty days from the date of its publication.

In the result, the writ petition fails and it is dismissed. CMPs. are also dismissed. Interim stay vacated."

5. After disposal of the aforesaid CWP No. 52 of 1997 vide judgment Ex. P-27 dated 26-3-1997, the respondent moved CMP No. 611 of 1997 in the said writ petition which was disposed of vide order dated 18-8-1997 Ex. P-28, which is reproduced below for ready reference:

"18-8-1997. Present :—Mr. R. L. Sood, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Inder Singh, Advocate General, for Respondents No. 1, 2 and 4.
Mr. Sharwan Dogra, Advocate, for the respondent No. 3.

In this application certain facts are set out which were available to the petitioners even before the writ petition was filed. As a matter of fact, those please were available when the matter was pending before the Labour Court but they have not taken the same before the Labour Court or before this Court in this writ petition. The correctness of the averments contained in the petition is being disputed by the respondents. In such circumstances, we are unable to entertain this application which is filed after the disposal of the writ petition for modification of our order passed in the writ petition. Hence this petition is dismissed.

Dasti copy on usual terms.

6. Then the petitioner filed a contempt petition COPC No. 35 of 1997 in the hon'ble H. P. High Court alleging non compliance of the judgment dated 26-3-1997 Ex. P-27 passed by the Hon'ble High Court in CWP No. 52 of 1997 affirming award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 of this Court subject to variation qua the direction regarding payment of interest. The contempt petition was dismissed by the Hon'ble High Court vide a common judgment dated 9-9-1999 Ex. P-29. Operative part whereof is as under:

"In the teeth of facts and circumstances noticed and considered herein above in these proceedings, this Court is unable to hold that the respondents have committed willful or deliberate disobedience of the order of this Court in the writ petitions. The doctrine of merger of the Labour Court award in the Judgment of this Court will not apply in the case in hand as no contempt would lie against the award of the Labour Court under the Contempt of Courts Act under the Industrial Disputes Act. Specific provisions are contained for executing the order of the Labour Court and this Court had dismissed the writ petitions of M/s Pamwi Tissues Ltd. By upholding the award of the Labour Court. However, it is made clear to the respondents that they shall honour their commitment made by them in their written statemnat filed in these proceedings that the petitioners shall be re-engaged in the same category at Chandigarh if the petitioners are willing to work at that place.

Consequently, for the above said reasons and observations, both these contempt petitions are dismissed. notices shall stand discharged. Costs on parties."

7. Being aggrieved by and dissatisfied with, the petitioner carried the matter to the Hon'ble Supreme Court by way of Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No. 2634-2685/2000 which was dismissed vide order dated 28-2-2000 Ex. P-30 on the following observations :

"No question of interference with order to contempt proceedings arises as the High Court itself has stated that petitioners' remedy is to get the award enforced. Whatever observations may have been made by the High Court on merits of the controversy will obviously not come in the way of the petitioners in pursuing the remedy of enforcement of the award in accordance with law.

It will be open to the petitioners to respond to the statement given by the respondents before the High Court in the contempt proceedings, which is noted at page 27 of the paper book, that the petitioners will be welcomed to resume their duties at Chandigarh. The petitioners" if so advised, may do so without prejudice to their rights and contentions. The Special Leave Petitions are dismissed accordingly."

8. Still notsatisfied, the petitioner again approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court by filing writ petition (Civil) No. 661 of 2000 which was also dismissed vide order dated 4-1-2001 Ex. P-35 with the observation that "the Petitioner may take appropriate proceedings in an appropriate forum". Accordingly the petitioner moved the authorities of the Labour Department for implementation of the aforesaid award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 passed by this Court and affirmed by the Hon'ble High Court subject to variation regarding payment of interest. Consequently, a certificate in the sum of Rs. 3,05,698/- was issued in favour of the petitioner under Section 33-C(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (in short the 'Act') which was successfully challenged by the respondent in the Hon'ble H.P. High Court by way of CWP No. 1115 of 2001 which was decided vide judgment dated 20-6-2002 Ex. P-36 in the following terms :

"In view of the aforesaid discussion this writ petition is allowed. As a consequence Annexure P-14 is hereby quashed and set aside and subsequent action of respondent No.3 on its basis also does not stand. At the same time it is ordered that because reply to show cause notice is already there on the file of respondent No. 2, he shall deal with the same in accordance with law and shall thereafter proceed further in the matter by keeping in view the provisions of law after being satisfied in that behalf. Respondent No. 2 will complete this exercise on or before 31st July, 2002. In the event of his coming to the conclusion that the matter needs to be referred to the Labour Court to be adjudicated by the said Court, respondents No. 1 and 2 shall ensure that the matter is referred to by them to the Labour Court so as to reach by or before 31st August, 2003. On receipt of reference, Labour Court will hear the case on day to day basis, of course in accordance with law and then conclude the proceedings by or before 30th October, 2002."

9. Thus the matter is once against this Court.

10. Admittedly, the petitioner has received a sum of Rs. 1,45,178/- from the respondent as arrear of back wages alongwith interest upto 31-12-1997.

11. Consequent upon quashing of the aforesaid certificate in the sum of Rs. 3,05,698/- the claim of the petitioner has been split up by the Labour Commissioner

Himachal Pradesh exercising delegated powers of the appropriate Government (Government of Himachal Pradesh) into two periods, that is, prior to the aforesaid award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 and thereafter. In respect of the pre award period a certificate in the sum of Rs. 63,000/- or so is stated to have been issued in favour of the petitioner under Section 33-C(1) of the 'Act'. Admittedly it has also been challenged by the respondent by filing a writ petition in the Hon'ble H.P. High Court and the same is said to be pending. However, this court is not concerned with this aspect of the matter in the present reference which pertains to the post award period as already observed.

12. The following is the controversy between the parties.

13. There is no denying the fact that the petitioner has not been reinstated in service of the respondent pursuant to award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1. On this score, the parties are having divergent stands and are blaming each other. According to the petitioner, the respondent is guilty of non implementation of the said award as confirmed by the Hon'ble High Court subject to variation on the point of payment of interest. To the contrary, the stand on behalf of the respondent is that the petitioner could not be reinstated in service in its unit at Barotiwala as the same was leased in favour of Swill Ltd., for a period of nine years w.e.f. 1-4-1993 to 31-3-2002 under orders of BIFR Ex. RW-2/G vide lease deed Ex. RW-3/A. In this regard document Ex. RW-1/A is relied upon vide which the said Swill Ltd., did not agree for re-instatement of the petitioner on the ground that they were already having surplus skilled and un-skilled workers in the factory. In such circumstances, the petitioner was asked to join at Chandigarh, but he did not except the offer even despite directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

14. On the pleadings set up on behalf of the parties, the following issues were framed :—

1. Whether services of the petitioner have been reinstated by the respondent in compliance to this Court's award dated 6-12-1996. ? If not, its effect ?

.. O. P. Parties.

2. Relief.

15. The parties have led oral and documentary evidence. I have heard their learned counsel and gone through the record.

16. For the reasons to be recorded hereinafter, my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:

FINDINGS :

Issue No. 1 : No. Effect discussed.

Relief : Reference answered accordingly.

REASONS FOR FINDINGS

17. Issue No. : The petitioner by placing reliance on communications Ex. P-3 to Ex. P-25, Ex. P-31 and Ex. P-32 has contended that initially he had been consistently requesting the respondent to accept his joining at Barotiwala alongwith the monetary benefits allowed to him under the aforesaid award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 and thereafter at Chandigarh, but the respondent was not at all interested in implementing the said award on one pretext or the other.

18. Conversely it is contended on behalf of the respondent as per appointment letter Ex. R-1 that the services of the petitioner were transferable and there was no specific direction either from this Court or from the Hon'ble High Court to re-instate the petitioner only at Barotiwala, he could have not legally insisted upon for acceptance of his joining at Barotiwala. On the strength of communications Ex. R-2 to Ex. R-9 and Ex. RW-1/A, it is submitted on behalf of the respondent that by refusing to accept alternative employment at Chandigarh the petitioner has abandoned the job and is not entitled for any relief.

19. In so far as the contention on behalf of the respondent that it was not in a position to re-instate the petitioner in its service at Barotiwala is concerned, we shall have to fall back on the relevant Covenants of lease agreement/draft lease deed Ex. RW-3/3 dated 15-6-1993. These are Covenants 3 (d), (f) and (n) and 4 (i) of the draft lease deed which are reproduced below for ready reference:—

3. The Lessor doth HEREBY COVENANT with the Lessee as follows :

(d) To pay and discharge all statutory and other liabilities prior to the date of putting the lessee in possession of the demised premises and the said facilities and also pay and discharge dues such as provident fund, excise, income-tax, sales tax, purchase tax relating to the activity carried on by the Lessor prior to the date of the execution of these presents, even though the same may accrue or arise after putting the Lessee in possession of the demised premises along with the said facilities ;

(f) To attend to all pending cases before any Court Tribunal or Forum relating to any activity carried on by the Lessor prior to the date of the execution of these presents and ensure that no adverse orders are passed by any Court of Tribunal or Forum so as to affect the smooth working of the demised premises and the said facilities by the Lessee and the Lessor shall ensure that all pending cases are disposed of as expeditiously as possible ;

(n) To meet all contingent liabilities, not known or disclosed at the time of sanction of the scheme by BIFR out of the interest free funds to be brought in by the Lessors and/or by the Promoters.

4. PROVIDED ALWAYS AND IT IS HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO AS FOLLOWS :

(i) All the employees and workmen of the Unit will continue to be the employees and workmen of the Lessor and the lessee shall pay all their salaries/wages, bonus and other payments from the effective date during the continuance of this agreement and shall keep the Lessor indemnified from and against such payments and obligations. As regards payment of salaries/wages/and other payments to the Security staff and Durbanis, the same will continue to be made by the Lessor and the Lessee will reimburse such payments to the Lessor. It is clearly agreed and understood that the Lessee shall in no way be responsible for payment of any terminal benefits, i.e. gratuity, retrenchment compensation or otherwise to the employees and workmen in respect of the period prior to the effective date and it shall be liable only for the salaries/wages, bonus and other payments during the period of this Agreement.

20. It is apparent from the above stipulations and particularly covenant 4 (i) that the responsibility to implement award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 affirmed by the Hon'ble High Court vide judgment Ex. P-27 dated 26-3-1997 subject to variation qua the direction regarding payment of interest was solely that of the respondent albeit the fact that the unit was leased to Swill Ltd. during the period 1-4-1993 to 31-3-2002, which is already over by now.

21. It appears that the above contention on behalf of the respondent also did not find favour that the Hon'ble High Court as is apparent from order dated 18-8-1997 passed in CMP No. 611 of 1997 which stands already relied.

22. The following observations were made by the Hon'ble High Court vide judgment dated 9-9-1999 Ex. P-29 passed in COPC No. 35 of 1997 :

"The respondents have given categorical assurance in the form of their statements in their counters filed in these proceedings that they are ready and willing to re-engage the petitioners in the factory of M/s Pamwi Tissues Ltd. at Chandigarh against the same category which they were holding before their dismissal and in the truth of the unconditional assurance of the respondents, the petitioners cannot impress upon the respondents to re-engage them at Barotiwala in a Factory which is not under the control of M/s Pamwi Tissues Ltd. in terms of the lease deed and if M/s Swill India Ltd. has no work to be performed by the petitioners as Fitter/Welder. This Court in these proceedings cannot compel the respondent's to do impossible work which is not in the competency or power of the respondents."

"However, it is made clear to the respondents that they shall honour their commitment made by them in their written statement filed in these proceedings that the petitioners shall be re-engaged in the same category at Chandigarh if the petitioners are willing to work at that place."
(emphasis supplied).

23. As already noticed, it was ordered as under by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 28-8-2000 Ex. P. 30 passed in Special Leave to Appeal.. (Civil) 2684-2685 of 2000 :

"No question of interference with order to contempt proceedings arises as the High Court itself has stated that the petitioners' remedy is to get the award enforced. Whatever observations may have been made by the High Court on merits of the controversy will obviously not come in the way of the petitioners in pursuing the remedy of enforcement of the award in accordance with law.

It will be open to the petitioners to respond to the statement given by the respondents before the High Court in the contempt proceedings, which is noted at Page 27 of the paper book, that the petitioners will be welcomed to resume their duties at Chandigarh. The petitioners, if so advised, may do so without prejudice to their rights and contentions. The Special Leave Petitions are dismissed accordingly."

24. It has also already been noticed that the following order dated 4-1-2000 Ex. P-35 was passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in CWP (Civil) 661 of 2000:

"The writ petition is dismissed. The petitioner may take appropriate proceedings in an appropriate forum."

25. While placing reliance on COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS, CALCUTTA vs. EAST INDIA COMMERCIAL CO. LTD., CALCUTTA AND OTHERS, AIR 1963 SC 1124. A contention has been raised on behalf of the respondent that all the earlier orders, that is, award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 passed by this Court judgment dated 26-3-1997 Ex. P-27 passed by the Hon'ble High Court affirming the said award subject to variation qua the direction regarding payment of interest and judgment dated 9-9-1999 Ex. P-29 passed by the Hon'ble High Court in COPC No. 35 of 1997 have merged into the aforesaid orders dated 28-2-2000 Ex. P-30 and 4-1-2001 Ex. P-35 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, if it is so, the following observations made by the

Hon'ble High Court vide judgement dated 20-6-2002 Ex. P-36 passed in CWP No. 1115 of 2001 are pertinent:

"A contention urged on behalf of the respondent No. 4 which is relevant in our opinion in the context of the present litigation also needs to be dealt with here. Mr. Sharwan Dogra submitted that please setup in this writ regarding filing of Contempt Petition by his client and its dismissal as well as order of the Supreme Court referred hereinabove do not in any manner wipe out or nullify much less negative the effect of judgement passed by this Court in CWP No. 52/97. Particularly when the said judgement has been accepted by the petitioner company and has attained finality. According to him, it is for the management of the petitioner-company to see that the writ is carried out and relief granted to the petitioner. He further submitted that leasing out of the petitioner-company to M/s. Swill Limited does not in any manner cast any cloud so far rights of the parties which were determined as well as fructified by the decision of the Labour Court and upheld in Writ No. 52/97. While controverting this plea, Mr. Sood, learned counsel for the petitioner, urged that since the unit of the petitioner at Baroti wala is leased out to M/s Swill Limited, pursuant to Annexure P-2, therefore, his client is not in a position to employ respondent No. 4 at its Factory at Baroti wala with a view to advance his this plea. Mr. Sood was also at pains to refer to the decision of this Court in COP (C) No. 35/97 dated 9-9-1999 as well as of the Supreme Court dated 28-2-2000 referred to hereinabove.

After having considered respective submissions urged in this behalf, we are of the view that so far judgement of this Court in CWP No. 52/97 is concerned, it is in no way effected by the decision of either Contempt Petition (supra) or by order of the Supreme Court. So far the decision of this Court in CWP No. 52/97 is concerned, it has to be carried out by the petitioner-company. Annexure P-2 also negates the plea of Mr. Sood that petitioner is not in a position to impelment the said decision because of the leasing out of its Unit to M/s Swill Limited.

A reference to this document shows that while sanctioning the scheme under Section 18 (4) of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985, petitioner-company was leased out to M/s. Will Limited for a period of nine years. This is evident from what is contained at Page 33 of the writ petition. When the petitioner was shunted out admittedly. Unit was very much with the petitioner-company. In case any proceeding as aforesaid was pending, it was for the petitioner to have taken care of all those factors so that the order does not become either meaningless or not worthy of being implemented.

Once this conclusion is arrived at then the petitioner company cannot be permitted to feign ignorance regarding the amount payable to the petitioner as also the money value of the benefit to which respondent No. 4 is entitled on his reinstatement. There can be none else than the petitioner company itself to calculate the same. As such instead of taking shelter under technicalities of law, as a reasonable employer guided by rule of law it should have straightway come forward for the payment both on account of wages as well as calculated value of benefits, instead of entering into the present litigation. Leaving the matter here only, further contentions raised on behalf of the parties are not being gone into."

26. The above discussion brings me to hold that the services of the petitioner have not been re-instated by the respondent in compliance of this Court's award dated 6-12-1996 Ex-P-1. Consequently, he is entitled for re-instatement in service alongwith full back wages in compliance of this Court's award dated 7-12-1996

Ex. P-1 as affirmed by the Hon'ble High Court vide judgement dated 26-3-1997 Ex. P-27 subject to variation regarding the direction qua payment of interest. The issue is decided accordingly.

RELIEF

27. The natural consequent of the above findings is that the petitioner is entitled for re-instatement in service of the respondent in its unit at Baroti wala in compliance of award dated 7-12-1996 Ex. P-1 passed by this Court as affirmed by the Hon'ble High Court vide judgement dated 26-3-1997 Ex. P-27 subject to variation qua the direction regarding payment of interest alongwith continuity in service and seniority. He shall also be entitled for back wages for the post award period, that is, w. e. f. 8-12-1996.

28. The parties have filed their own calculations in this regard. This calculations filed by the petitioner are Mark-C. The respondent has filed calculations Ex. RW-3/B and Ex. RW-3/C. A comparative reading of the calculations filed by the parties would go to show that the only difference between them is regarding conveyance allowance, ex-gratia, payment in lieu of uniform, boot and sweater and leave-encashment. Whereas the petitioner has included these in his calculations, the same stand excluded from the calculations filed by the respondent. In so far as conveyance allowance is concerned, the same is a part of the wages and the petitioner is entitled for the same. He is also entitled for ex-gratia as has been held by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court in MAHARASHTRA STATE ROAD TRANSPORT CORPORATION, BOMBAY VERSUS NAMDEOT. NALVADE 2003 (5) SLR 372. However, he is entitled for any payment in lieu of uniform, boot and sweater as held in a Namdeo T. Nalvade (supra). Leave encashment is not a component of back wages and the petitioner shall not be entitled for the same.

29. In view of the above, back wages for the post award period, that is, w. e. f. 8-12-1996 onwards shall be payable in the above terms.

30. In the result, the reference shall stand answered accordingly. Let a copy of the award be sent to appropriate government for publication in the Official gazette.

Decided on : 17-10-2003

Smt. Kanta Devi w/o Shri Babu Ram, Village Chandrani, P.O. Taksal, Tehsil Kasauli, District Solan, Himachal Pradesh .. Petitioner.

Versus

The Managing Director, Modulus Springs Pvt. Ltd. Near Timber, Depot Sector-4, Kalka Road-Parwanoo, District Solan, Himachal Pradesh .. Respondent.

Reference under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 2003

For petitioner: Shri J. C. Bhardwaj, A. R.
For respondent: Respondent ex parte.

AWARD

The present award arises out of the following reference received for adjudication from the appropriate Government:

1. "Whether the termination of Smt. Kanta Devi w/o Shri Babu Ram by the Managing Director, M/s Modulus Springs Pvt. Ltd., Timber Depot, Sector-4, Kasauli Road, Parwanoo, Himachal Pradesh w.e.f. 1-12-1999 without the compliance of Section 25(F) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is illegal and unjustified. If so to what relief and amount of compensation she is entitled to?"

2. "Whether Smt. Kanta Devi is herself absenting from her duty and has abandoned the employment if so its effect?"

2. The petitioner has filed statement of claim. She has averred that she was employed by the respondent in April 1997. The employment was continuous for the purpose of Section 25-B of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act'). She complete 240 days of service in each year of employment and was thus entitled for the protection of section 25-F of the 'Act'. However, even despite that she was illegally retrenched w.e.f. 1-12-1999 without any notice and retrenchment compensation. Her service record was without any blemish. It is further averred that the respondent management is guilty of unfair labour practice. Earlier also she was illegally removed from the employment on 12-10-1999, but was later on re-instated alongwith continuity in service and consequent service benefits pursuant to conciliation proceedings before the Labour-cum-Conciliation Officer, Parwanoo under Section 12(3) of the 'Act'. She was again retrenched w.e.f. 1-12-1999 when she refused to accept and acknowledge a sum of Rs.600/- as wages against by an entry of Rs. 1600/-, in the wage register. According to the petitioner she had not abandoned the job. No enquiry was held against her. Though she was retrenched, persons junior to her were retained and even fresh recruitment has been made in violation of Section 25-G and 25-H of the Act. It is stated that she is un-employed since she was retrenched. She prays for re-instatement in service w.e.f. 1-12-1999 alongwith all the consequential benefits including back wages.

3. On failure to put in appearance despite valid service, respondent was proceeded against ex-parte on 21-3-2003.

4. In the ex parte evidence, the petitioner has appeared as PW-1. She has stated on oath that she joined the respondent as Helper on 15-4-1993. She worked as such continuously upto 1-12-1999 when her services were terminated by the respondent without any notice and without any retrenchment compensation. Her service record was without any blemish. Though her services were terminated, persons junior to her were retained. According to her, she is unemployed since she was terminated. She prays for re-instatement in service alongwith continuity in service and back wages.

5. It is apparent from the above ex-parte evidence led on behalf of the petitioner that she was in the continuous service of the respondent within the meaning of Section 25-B of the 'Act' from 15-4-1993 to 1-12-1999 when her service were terminated by the respondent without any notice and retrenchment compensation in violation of section 25-F of the 'Act'. Thus the petitioner is entitled for relief. The abandonment does not stand established for want of any evidence.

6. The above evidence has remained absolutely un rebutted.

7. In view of the above, whereas the first part of the reference is answered in affirmative, the second part thereof shall stand answered in negative. Consequently the petitioner is held entitled for re-instatement in service of the respondent as Helper with effect from the date of retrenchment, that is 1-12-1999 alongwith all the consequential service benefits such as continuity in service, seniority and back wages. Let a copy of the award be sent to appropriate Government for publication in the official gazette.

works only. In addition to existing 4 National Highway Divisions, a new National Highway Division is created with Hqrs. at Hamirpur by shifting Medical College Division Shimla, with increased staff strength.

4. (a) There will be 24 National Highway Sub Divisions as under:—

(i) N.H. Division, Jogindernagar :

Nurpur, Shahpur, Baijnath, Gumma and Drang (Mandi).

(ii) N.H. Division, Pandoh :

Bilaspur, Sundernagar, Kullu and Katrain.

(iii) N.H. Division, Hamirpur :

Amb, Jwalamukhi, Samirpur, Kotli and Jukhala.

(iv) N.H. Division, Solan :

Nalagarh, Dhaulakuan, Chambaghat, Dhalli and Darlaghat.

(v) N.H. Division, Rampur :

Matiana, Narkanda, Rampur, Jeori and Nigulsari.

(b) Investigation sub-divisions at Jukhala, Jwalamukhi, Amb and Samirpur converted as working Sub-Divisions as such. They will also continue to carry out investigation works assigned to the originally as Investigation sub-divisions.

(c) N.H. Sub-division, Dhalli Bypass, Dharampur (Solan) Drang (Kangra) and Pandoh are relocated at Darlaghat, Nalagarh, Bilaspur and Kotli respectively as such...

(d) A new Sub-division is created at Dhaulakuan with a sanctioned staff strength of Asstt. Engineer-I, Jr. Engineer-4, Sr. Assistant-I and Jr. Assistant-I by internalization from amongst the staff rendered surplus due to re-structuring.

(e) Other existing N.H. Sub-Divisions will continue as such.

5. Sanctioned strength of Jr. Engineers in the N.H. Divisions shall be as under:—

N.H. Division Solan-21, N.H. Division, Hamirpur-20, N.H. Division, Jogindernagar-17, N.H. Division, Rampur-17 and N.H. Division, Pandoh-16. This strength will be met out of the existing strength in the 4 N.H. Divisions and the Jr. Engineers being rendered surplus from Circles consequent upon restructuring. 10 posts of Jr. Engineers in the Civil Divisions, looking after predominantly N.H. roads presently with them, will be converted into N.H. Sections exclusively. These 10 Sections will be identified by the Engineer-in-Chief in consultation with Chief Engineer (National Highways) and notified accordingly.

(6) N.H. Divisions, Jogindernagar, Pandoh and Hamirpur shall be under the control of N.H. Circle, Shahpur, N.H. Divisions, Solan and Rampur will be under the control of N.H. Circle, Shimla.

(7) Revised sanctioned strength of N.H. Circle, Shahpur and Shimla and N.H. division, Hamirpur is annexed. The additional staff strength being provided to National Highway set up is being met by internalizing. The surplus staff indicated in the annexure will be re-deployed in the Arbitration Circle being revived and other establishment of P. W. D. as far as possible for which orders will be issued separately.

(8) The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways have prescribed labour norms for maintenance, which is 0.3 person per K. M. Keeping in view the requirement of labour on higher side in the hills for maintenance, the labour norms for N.H. will be 0.5 per K. M. and accordingly the surplus labour will be transferred to Neighbouring/nearby Civil Divisions. As far as possible daily wage labourers will be retained in N.H. organization and if it falls short of the requirement as per the norms, the work-charge labour will be retained either on seniority basis or on option basis. Whenever there is emergent need of extra labour for maintenance, such extra labour will be borrowed from the nearby Civil Divisions along the National Highways payment of wages of the labour beyond the norms prescribed by the Ministry for National Highways, will be met from the State-funds.

(9) This issue with prior concurrence of Finance Department vide their U. O. No. 1251-Fin-F/2003, dated 1-12-2003 and as approved by the Council of Ministers in its meeting held on 4-12-2003.
